Daycare Labeling Checklist

Check off each item as you label it. Ask your daycare what information they require before you start.

Child's name: _____ Daycare start date: _____ Room / teacher: _____

Bottles & Feeding

- [ ] Every bottle (on the hard plastic ring)
- [ ] Every bottle cap, separately
- [ ] Sippy cups and lids, separately
- [ ] Pacifiers (hard plastic part only)
- [ ] Food containers and their lids
- [ ] Snack cups
- [ ] Breast milk storage bags
- [ ] Bibs, spoons and forks
- [ ] Ice packs

Clothing

- [ ] Shirts and pants (care tag)
- [ ] Onesies and undershirts
- [ ] Spare outfit: every piece
- [ ] Socks (iron-on inside the cuff)
- [ ] Jacket (collar and pocket)
- [ ] Hats and mittens
- [ ] Both shoes (inside each shoe)
- [ ] Sleep sack or nap blanket
- [ ] Lovey or comfort item

Personal Care

- [ ] Diaper cream
- [ ] Wipes container
- [ ] Sunscreen
- [ ] Any medication
- [ ] Nap mat or changing pad
- [ ] Cloth diapers and wet bag

Bags & Safety

- [ ] Diaper bag (outside)
- [ ] Contact label inside the bag
- [ ] Lunchbox or bottle bag
- [ ] Spare outfit bag
- [ ] Allergy labels, if needed
- [ ] Pump parts, if pumping

What My Daycare Requires on Labels

☐ Name ☐ First + last name ☐ Date ☐ Contents ☐ Ounces ☐ Allergy info

_____

Before day one: wipe hard surfaces with rubbing alcohol, press every label edge down, and wait 24 hours before the first wash. Labels don't stick to silicone, so use the hard plastic parts.